

MICROFILMS AND MICROFICHES FOR MEDIEVAL AND MODERN HISTORY

(excluding Russian history, and material in the Chinese language)

Revised June 2000

The Microfilm Area is on Floor 1 of the Main Building. All microforms are kept there, together with reading machines. The microfilm and microfiche numbers should enable you to find what you want by yourself. The main newspapers are kept in A-Z order in the store-room on Main 1 (along the left wall and at the back of the room).

If you need any help, ask at the General Enquiries Desk on Floor 3 of the Main Building.

If you want to make full-sized copies from microfilm and fiches, there is a reader printer in the Photocopying Office (Main Building Floor 3).

In the list, (Diss.) indicates a dissertation.

The arrangement of the list is:

- A. Major newspapers and periodicals (p.2)
- B. British history: general (p.3)
- C. British history: local (p.10)
- D. International history: British state papers (p.12)
- E. International history: other material (p.14)
