

Lexis Library: quick start guide

Lexis Library covers law reports, legislation, legal journals and key legal commentaries such as Halsbury's Laws of England. All content is available in full text and is updated twice a day.

Getting started

1. Go to the Library homepage at <http://library.leeds.ac.uk> or to the Learn tab in Minerva
2. Type Lexis Library into the Library search box.
3. Select Lexis Library from the Database recommendations list at the top of the screen.
4. Enter your IT username and password if prompted. To login from off-campus, select 'UK Federation Access' and find University of Leeds in the list to be taken to the log-in page.

Searching Lexis Library

1. Choose a tab to search for specific types of material e.g. cases, legislation, journal articles.

2. Select the Sources tab to search for international law materials.

3. Use Find a Title to search for the title of an article or legislation, or names in a case.

4. Use My Bookshelf to search or browse specific titles. Customise the list by selecting Edit source list.
